This month begins the traditional summer months for our society. As part of this, we will be taking vacations, enjoying the warm weather, and working in a different way than we did during the normal school year.

However, your Board of Directors will be busy this summer preparing for the next season. Plans are being put into place for you to enjoy excellent educational speakers, delicious meals and great door prizes, all in a pleasant atmosphere. Please mark on your calendars that the Upper SC Chapter of NAPM-CV meetings will begin on September 2, 2004, and you will not want to miss that first event!

Announcing Your New Board

Linda Jennings, C.P.M., A.P.P.	President
Ellen Welsh	1st Vice President
Anita Holloway	2nd Vice President
Max Schwandt	Treasurer
Sylvia Huffman	Secretary & Public Relations
Ron Colombe, C.P.M.	Professional Development & Programs
David Hendrix, C.P.M.	Employment Services & Technical

As the Board starts planning for next year, I hope that you will offer your support, ideas, and assistance. I also ask that you contact your fellow professionals that have not attended a meeting or it's been a long time since they attended a meeting. Invite them to come out and see what the Chapter is now offering. We want to continue to improve and grow this Chapter and make it the biggest and best Chapter in the region.

Membership Renewals

You will soon be receiving your membership renewal forms. There are a couple of points that you need to be aware of when completing the form. If there is no place for you to state your chapter, please write it on the form "Upper SC Chapter". This will ensure that you are on our mailing list but also that we will receive our portion of your annual dues. Be sure to check how your name is listed on the
